Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Magazine Omega's Clarion Call Has Suspended Publication

Birmingham, AL – During its 75th Grand conclave held in Birmingham Alabama, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. suspended publication of its Omega's Clarion Call magazine. According to Troy Moore, managing editor of the magazine, "this was truly a surprise." Moore, who has been the publication's only editor, would not speculate as to whether the action had been a result of financial concerns or a change in direction for the organization.

Spring 2008 was the last issue of the magazine; it was distributed electronically only and is available online at www.oppf.org.
